Re: Supply Disruption for Certain Specialty Sealants Sourced from Dow Elizabethtown Site

This notification is to inform you that Dow has experienced mechanical failures in multiple pieces of process equipment that produce certain specialty silicone sealants at its Elizabethtown, Kentucky manufacturing site. The products impacted are given below in Table 1.

Dow is working diligently with internal teams and its vendors to restore production and service. At this time, Dow anticipates that production could be suspended until July 2024. Dow representatives will provide periodic updates when certain milestones are achieved.
